ARNIE ABRAMYAN

ENTREPRENEUR . ACTIVIST . VISIONARY

"Goal is to build a healthy community that's safe, prosperous and vibrant for our families. Our children deserve better and should be given the opportunity of a safe childhood."

THE STORY

I was born in Abovian, Armenia and moved to Los Angeles when I was a child. I attended public schools and later was a college dropout to pursue my dream of becoming an entrepreneur. My father and grandfather were small business owners. My father passed away when I was 17 years old and that is when I lost my mentor which was what caused me to spiral into chaos and depression in my 20's. Like many I wanted to conquer the world and I didn't know how I was going to do it. I got into the web industry, restaurants and retail stores early. My medicine became work and through long hours in the restaurants and sleepless nights of web developing I managed to succeed. After multiple failed businesses and risks that landed me even in jail, I finally learn how to be financially free. I believe by not smoking, drinking, or using drugs I was able to stay clear headed and focused.

Life wasn't easy when chasing my dreams and vision not realizing the commitment, sacrifice and dedication it would take to be successful. It's the price you pay for the life you choose.

After graduating from Glendale High School, I moved to Sunland Tujunga and have been here ever since. ArnieVille was an idea my friend John mentioned when I described to him what I wanted to do and after convincing my family and friends to join me in building a destination for families to come and enjoy life here in Sunland Tujunga. We've managed to get off to a great start. I ask you to join us and let's build ArnieVille together.

COUNCILWOMAN MONICA RODRIGUEZ DECLARES "DEPECHE MODE DAY" IN LOS ANGELES

musicconnection.com Nov, 2023

Councilwoman Monica Rodriguez, representing the 7th District, has declared "Depeche Mode Day" in the City of Los Angeles on December 13. This special proclamation will honor Dave Gahan and Martin Gore of the legendary band, in recognition of Depeche Mode's musical genius and the enduring message of unity and love that they have inspired in Los Angeles and globally.

ASSEMBLYMEMBER LUZ RIVAS WILL RUN TO REPLACE TONY CÁRDENAS IN CONGRESS D29

PR ASMD.C.ORG | Nov, 2023

Assemblymember Luz Rivas (D-North Hollywood) said she would run for Congress, entering what could become a crowded race to replace Tony Cárdenas as the San Fernando Valley-based 29th District's representative. Cárdenas has told The Times he will not run for reelection in 2024 and will endorse Rivas to replace him in Washington. Rivas, 49, said she had tired of the "constant state of dysfunction" the Republican Party has seemed trapped in since the October ouster of Kevin McCarthy as speaker of the House. Our constituents are paying the price," Rivas said in a Saturday phone interview. "Residents of the San Fernando Valley deserve a member of Congress that will focus on their needs, like I have in the state Legislature."

It's time to restore public safety, bring transparency back to the people's office, hold wrongdoers accountable, and make real – meaningful reforms.

● FAIR AND EQUAL ACCESS TO JUSTICE.

I will ensure ALL residents of Los Angeles have fair and equal access to justice

● JUSTICE REFORMS.

I believe in reforms, rehabilitation and second chances.

● VICTIMS, FAMILIES AND SURVIVORS.

I will always support victims, survivors, and families.

'NEVER FORGET WHERE YOU CAME FROM': CA STATE SENATOR ANTHONY PORTANTINO SEEKS 30TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT SEAT

Courthousenews.com | Sep, 2023

Now running for California's 30th congressional district, Portantino hopes to take that philosophy to Washington, D.C. Many candidates are vying in the race to replace U.S. Representative Adam Schiff, who's served the area since 2001 but is leaving his 30th District seat for a statewide Senate bid. Senator Dianne Feinstein, who currently holds that seat, doesn't intend to seek reelection. Portantino, who terms out of office next year, says he wants to ensure whoever succeeds Schiff can handle the job.

Coffee & Cannabis

Saturday Morning Connections

While we understand that some may be skeptical or vehemently opposed to cannabis consumption, we invite you to explore the significant benefits it can offer, particularly for cancer patients and various other medical conditions. With proper organic cultivation and lab testing, cannabis can be harnessed as a safe and effective remedy.

Benefits of Lab-Tested Cannabis:

One undeniable advantage of legalization is the assurance that the cannabis available in regulated markets undergoes rigorous lab testing. This ensures that it is free from harmful pesticides and herbicides, providing consumers with much-needed peace of mind. When cannabis is grown organically and subjected to these tests, it becomes a reliable and trusted medicine, offering consistent quality and safety.

Harnessing the Power of Organic Cannabis:

Organically grown cannabis holds immense potential to alleviate symptoms and improve the quality of life for cancer patients and many others. Through organic cultivation practices, the natural healing properties of cannabis are preserved, ensuring patients receive the full therapeutic benefits without the harmful side effects associated with synthetic alternatives. It empowers individuals to explore a holistic approach to their well-being, with cannabis playing a vital role in their treatment journey.

Downfalls of Unregulated Markets:

The proliferation of illegal or black-market cannabis has unfortunately been marred by the unchecked greed of some individuals. Substances such as growth hormones find their way into these unregulated products, posing serious risks to consumers. The use of plant growth regulators (PGRs) aims to maximize yield but disregards the potential harm caused to those who rely on cannabis for medicinal purposes. Particularly for cancer patients, the consumption of growth hormone-infused cannabis can be devastating, as it may fuel tumor growth and accelerate the spread of cancer cells.

Conclusion:

Cannabis has the remarkable potential to revolutionize the medical field and offer hope to countless individuals suffering from debilitating conditions. By embracing organic cultivation methods and ensuring lab testing, we can unlock the true healing potential of this plant. We encourage all, including those who harbor skepticism or oppose cannabis consumption, to acknowledge its role as a legitimate medicine.

Q&A WITH ARNIE ABRAMYAN

Q: WHEN DID YOU KNOW YOU WANTED TO BE AN ENTREPRENEUR?

A: My father was a businessman and my grandfather too, so it came naturally to me. When I was 14 years old and had gotten into trouble with the law. My father set me down and asked what I wanted to be and do for the rest of my life. He asked if I wanted to be an engineer, a businessman or a gangster because I was on a very destructive path. My answer was simple. A businessman because engineers required a lot of school and mostly sitting behind the desk and a gangster ended up dead or in jail.

Q: WHY DID YOU CHOOSE TO SETTLE IN SUNLAND TUJUNGA?

A: Sunland Tujunga and I have had a very toxic yet loving relationship. My uncle had bought a house in Tujunga back in 1988 for our families to live at when we arrived from Armenia. Yet it was soon discovered that Tujunga was too rough and dangerous to raise children so we all moved to Glendale. In 1999, my father passed away and I graduated from high school. I knew I didn't want to stay in Glendale. I moved to Sunland closer to our grandparents. Back in 2006 is when I thought to myself to open up a coffee house with music and fun for the community. That was the beginning of a journey that made me who I am today.

Q: WHEN DID YOU GET ACTIVE IN POLITICS?

A: My grandfather thought us to hang our head down and work hard for our family. Take care of family and not get caught up with policies. We had an armed robbery at Munchies where 4 gunman with masks came into our store. Put a gun to my wifes head and robbed us. I went to the neighborhood council and asked for help.

It wasn't okay to get robbed in broad day light. I was made fun of by an individual and he said, "what did they steal your cash or your stash?" This was the turning point and I decided to run for neighborhood council president to make sure that our community was safe.

Q: HOW TO YOU BALANCE FAMILY AND WORK?

A: I would say you have to integrate the two not balance because you can never really balance evenly. I've made many sacrifices to be successful and at times at the cost of my family time. I continue to improve and evolve as a husband, father and an entrepreneur.

Q: ARE YOU HAPPY WITH YOUR ACHIEVEMENTS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS?

A: We give up our health to make money. We give up our money to get our health back and then we die. You have to make the journey and the path you travel fun and fruitful. I beat myself up about how much time I wasted and how much more I could have accomplished, yet I'm grateful to God for being were I am today.

Q: WHAT WOULD YOU SAY THE BEST PART OF YOUR SUCCESS IS?

A: Giving back to the community and humanity. Its a blessing for God is working through me. My success is my friends, families and communities success and it's Gods will.

Q: WHO WAS YOUR MENTOR AND IDOL GROWING UP?

A: My father, Grandfather and Kirk Krekorian.

Q: WHAT IS YOUR RELIGION ?

A: "I was born a Christian and I will die a Christian". As a baby I was baptized and I was raised as a Christian child. It wasn't until I was a young boy I found God. My relationship with Jesus Christ is sacred to me and I truly feel that he has got my back in business and in life.
